FOREWORD

The close of our high school days may seem to some as an ending of all that has been important to us in these, the most eventful years of our lives. Yet this ending is in a truer sense the beginning of a great adventure through the unknown corridors of life. We are now handed the precious keys to unlock the treasures of life's golden experiences. Armed with our hard-earned token, a high school diploma, we, as citizens of tomorrow, hope to be able to feel a surge of pride in our accomplishments, meet unknown challenges head-on, and become true leaders of our times. Yet we will always cherish our high school years, in which we realized the true meaning of friendship, disappointment, laughter, and learning.

This 1963 MIRROR reflects for us an unfading memory of our years at Waltham High School.

The Editors

"FORSAN ET HAEC OLIM MEMINISSE IUVABIT."

DEDICATION

A survey of history shows readily that the success of a powerful civilization is directly proportional to the discipline of its people. The task of a disciplinarian is a difficult one, yet this position in today's educational institution is an eminent one. The man who is strict in his principles will be respected and remembered far longer than the one who lacks firmness. For this reason we, the class of 1963, respectfully dedicate our Mirror to Mr. Edward May, submaster in charge of discipline at Waltham High School.

A native of Dorchester, Mr. May received his Bachelor of Science degree from Norwich University in 1925 and later took a Master of Education degree at Boston University. Although he first came to Waltham High in 1939 as a science teacher, he soon turned to teaching mathematics. From 1947 to 1962 he was chairman of the Mathematics Department in the Waltham School System. Mr. May is a member of the Massachusetts Schoolmasters' Club and of the Association of Teachers of Mathematics in New England.

As we leave Waltham High School, we wish Mr. May many years of health and happiness in his administrative duties.

WILLIAM J. GALLAGHER

To the Class of 1963:

You have survived many trials since early school days. Your mettle has been tested and proven by previous performance. If your school has prepared you for nothing else but readiness for change, it has fulfilled its mission. You still will be tested in college, in work, in the service, in the community soon and for the rest of your lives.

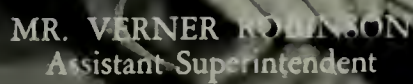

Many of you shine now, many will shine a little later, and others much later. You have the basic preparation to carry out successfully your post school plans. Now, optimistically face your future with hope as Robert Frost advises:

"The woods are lovely, dark and deep
And I have many miles to go before I sleep."

Remember always our days at Waltham High School as they are reflected in this Mirror of 1963.

Sincerely,

William J. Gallagher

To the Class of 1963:

Congratulations and very best wishes to every member of this year's graduating class.

As you plan this milestone in your quest for knowledge and SKILLS, you have prepared yourself to understand what you are to do.

Now you must set yourselves earnestly to do the work you are trained to do. DO not hesitate to aim high, the loftier your purpose is the more sure you will be to make the world richer with every enrichment of yourself.

May each of you achieve the victory of success and enjoy good health in the years that lie ahead in today's changing and challenging world.

Sincerely,

Lloyd F. Van Arsdale

In Memoriam

In October of 1962 Waltham High School suffered a tremendous loss by the sudden passing of a devoted teacher and a valued friend, Mr. James Garrahan. A native of Mahanoy City, Pennsylvania, Mr. Garrahan received his Bachelor of Arts degree from the College of the Holy Cross and did graduate work at the University of Pennsylvania, Boston University, and Bucknell University. For eleven years he was a lay teacher at the Stigmatine Seminary in Waltham, and for twenty years, from 1942 to 1962, he taught English at Waltham High School. In addition to his teaching duties at the high school, Mr. Garrahan served on the advisory board of the National Honor Society, and at various times he served as director of the Dramatics Club and of the Debating Society. He also assisted in the organization of the scheduling of classes.

The entire class of 1963 wishes to extend its deepest and sincerest sympathy to Mrs. Garrahan and to his family.

May he rest in peace.

Those who have passed . . .

RAYMOND A. CRAWFORD

The founder of the first instrumental high school band in Massachusetts, the Waltham High band, died in December of 1961 at the age of 66. Mr. Raymond A. Crawford graduated from the New England Conservatory of Music in 1918 and then had a very distinguished musical career. In the course of his 36 years in Waltham his bands received national recognition. Mr. Crawford devoted much of his time to civic activities, among these the Rotary Club, the American Legion, and the Waltham Chamber of Commerce. His personal generosity to his students will always be appreciated.

JOHN L. LEARY

On August 18, 1961, Waltham lost one of the outstanding athletes of the century and the high school one of its best known figures. Born on May 2, 1891, John Leary became a versatile sportsman. Although he was known throughout his high school years as a football star, after graduation he gained national recognition as a major league baseball player. His eight year baseball career was interrupted by two years of service in the Navy during World War I. Later he returned to Waltham High to take a position as combination football coach, baseball coach, and head of the physical education department. He led Waltham teams to victory for the next forty years. So exceptional was this man as an athlete and molder of men that April 25, 1959, was proclaimed as "Leary Day" and the Waltham Athletic Field was renamed the John L. Leary Athletic Field.

THOMAS A. ROACH

A former Waltham High English teacher, Thomas A. Roach was also extremely talented in the field of dramatics. It was while he was both teaching and acting that he died suddenly in September, 1962.

Born in Waltham, Mr. Roach graduated from St. Joseph's College in Tarrytown, New York, and then went on to study at Catholic University of America and Manhattan College. Except for four years when he was in the service during World War II, Mr. Roach had a brilliant teaching career at Waltham High from 1938 to 1957. In 1957 he left Waltham to take an English teaching post at Watertown High. To his family we extend our sincere sympathy.

HENRY ABBONDANZIO

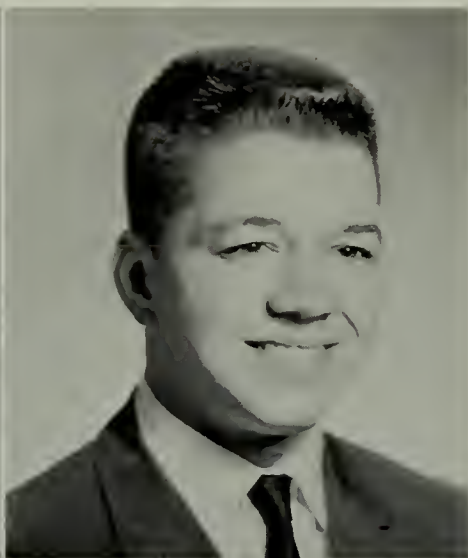

36 Woodland Road

College II

"If you are a man, follow him."

Ambitious "Hank" plans to start his own business after graduating from W.H.S. . . . thinks the Hot Rod Club, cars, and a certain miss are "cool" . . . waits for dismissal bell with Mo, Steve, and Frank. Good luck, Hank!

Activities: Rifle Club 2; Talent Show 2, 3, 4; Prom Committee 3, 4.

ALDEN ABBOTT

427 Main Street

Honors

"The friend more divine than all other divinities."

Active "Wayne," a member of DeMolay and L.R.Y., likes trig best at W.H.S. When he isn't busy acting, "Ambrose" can be found with Neal or Stew. Wayne hopes for a medical career after college; perhaps he can combine his profession with his acting skills and become "Dr. Abbott" on television. Anything's possible for Wayne.

Activities: Football 2, 3; Crimson Key 4; Senior Play 4; Hockey Team 2; Mirror Business Staff 4; Talent Show Committee 3, 4.

The fading of summer brings us back to reality

JOHN ALLEN

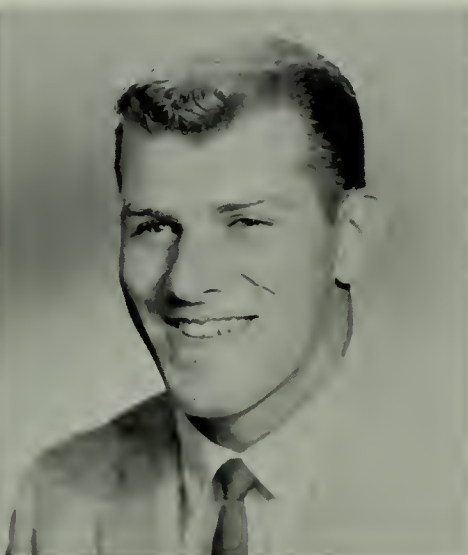

19 Maple Street

College II

"The beginning of all great things is small."

"Jack" can usually be found chatting with his buddies Bill and Chester. He asserts that he likes lunch best at W.H.S., but we know that English classes also rate high with him.

Activities: Football 2; Audio-Visual Staff 2, 3, 4.

WILLIAM ALLEN

103 Crescent Street

College II

"His soul is larger than the sky."

"Billy" wishes that we would have fried clams once in a while for school lunches. Along with Gary and Paul, he likes his English classes. Although Bill's future plans are uncertain, we are sure that he will do as well in life as he has done on the W.H.S. gridiron.

Activities: Football 2, 3, 4; Home-room Representative 3.

STEWART ANDERSON

31 Madison Road

Honors

"Ideas control the world."

Besides trig classes, Stew likes the dismissal bell. He uses his track experience to get out fast. A member of the DeMolay and the Youth Council. Stew is usually seen with Wayne and Joe. College lies ahead for him next fall.

Activities: Track Team 2, 3, 4; Senior Play Representative 4; Cross Country Team 4.

DAWN ANDREWS

942 Trapelo Road

Clerk Typist

"Nothing is so popular as kindness."

"How do you like that style?" asks Miss Andrews, the hair stylist. "Oh, fiddle sticks!" is her cry if Diana and Muriel aren't pleased, and she tries again. Swimming, dancing, Rainbow, and P.Y.F. keep Dawn busy almost until the breaking of her pretty name itself. Happy day breaks, Dawn!

JUDY ANNUNCIATA

84 Albermarle Road

Clerk Typist

"Her soul is a mystery."

Our business machines course is the favorite of "Annunce." Collecting records and saying "adamalada" are usual for her too. Her friends, Jean, Linda, and Silvia, wish her the best of luck next year at business school.

Activities: Pep Squad 3; Library Council 4.

JUDITH ANSARA

80 Princeton Avenue

College II

"A lot of time for laughing."

Smiling "Arab" spends most of her free time cheering the hockey team on to victory. Lois and Linda tell us that English rates an "A" with this future nurse, whose spare time is occupied with sorority and "p.j." parties. Good luck, Judy!

Activities: Hockey Cheerleader 3, 4, Captain 4; Talent Show 2, 3, 4; Junior Prom Committee 3; Maroon Squad 4; Senior Play Committee 4.

CAROL AUCOIN

280 College Farm Road

College II

"Be silent and exult."

Busy Carol is a former Lexington Street Juniorite who enjoys trig, democracy, and homeroom periods most at W.H.S. Bowling, skiing, and eating pizza at the Wal-Lex with Marcia, Karen, and Pat keep "Acorn" on the go. This C.Y.O. member hopes for a nursing career after graduation.

Activities: Girls' Sports 2, 3, 4.

MARGARET AYOUB

7-A Dermody Road

Stenographic

"She never complains; she is always pleasant."

Margie, who loves to dance and cook, also enjoys homeroom period. She says, "Forget it" to some things but definitely not to Mrs. Carney's democracy classes. Margie will dance her way through life with much success.

JOHN BABSTOCK

7 Charlotte Road

College II

"Where there's a will, way-don finds a way."

"Do tell!" says "Babo" to friends Grube and Karrot-Top. Girls and dismissal bell are his favorites at W.H.S. . . . likes chemistry with Mr. Yetten, "needless to say." Cars, C.Y.O., Boys' Club, and eating hamburgers occupy most of "Babo's" spare time . . . hopes to be an I.B.M. repairman.

Activities: Chess Club 3.

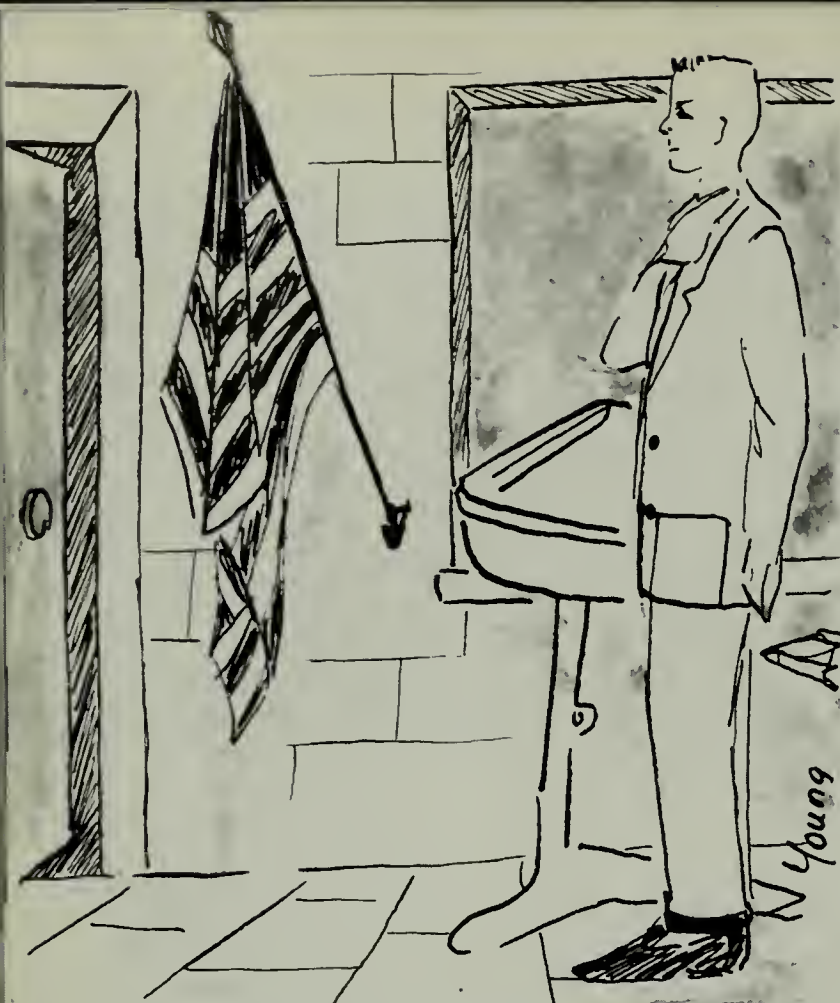

SUMNER BARBARICK

84 Arcadia Avenue

College I

"Home is the hunter, home from the hill."

When he isn't talking about his favorite "trig" class, Sumner can be found hunting with John, Cliff and Bob. After graduation from W.H.S. he plans to attend college. Best of luck, Sumner.

"I pledge allegiance to the flag . . ."

KEVIN BARNICLE

22 Colburn Street

College II

"A light heart lives long."

"Barney," a former North Juniorite and an avid history student, spends his spare time with Russ at the Boys' Club . . . enjoys eating steak and making plans for the future as a mechanical engineer . . . looks forward to studying at Wentworth Institute. Good luck, "Barney."

Activities: Swimming Team 2, 3, 4, Captain 4.

CAROL BARRILE

141 Calvary Street

College II

"Her smile is like the dawn."

Mary and Joanne tell us that this lively senior enjoys homeroom periods and Mr. Collins' English class most at W.H.S. Carol always seems to be dashing to Student Council meetings or listening to her record collection. Future plans include attending Kenneth's Hairdressing School.

Activities: Homeroom Representative 4; Pep Squad 2; Junior Prom Committee 3.

ANNITA BARLOW

4 Elm Avenue

College II

"Quietness is best."

A cute girl with a great personality . . . loves loads of Italian spaghetti and roller skating . . . enjoys Mr. Collins' English classes . . . future entails attending I.B.M. school.

RONALD BARNHART

164 Copeland Street

Vocational

"There is honesty and fellowship in him."

Who is that excellent machinist? Why, it is none other than Ron, of course! After a great job like that anyone is entitled to a big steak dinner, don't you think? When at school, Ron rushes to English classes with Joe and John. Good luck in the years to come, Ron.

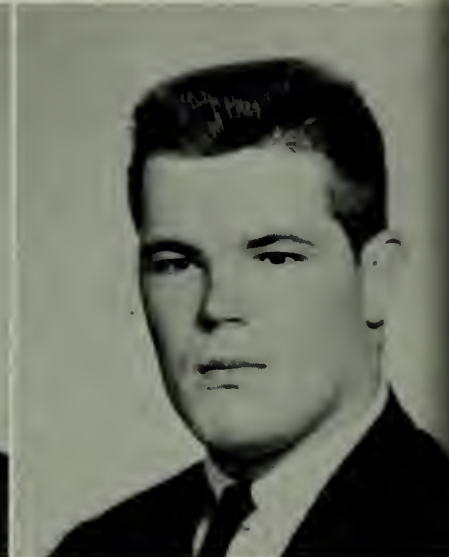

FRANCIS BENINATI

1188 Main Street

College II

"Silence is a great peace-maker."

Musical "Frankie" swings during activity period with Steve and Hank. His saxophone performances at North Junior and in our talent show rate him as one of the most talented in our class. The service is in the future for this pizza and car lover. "Go, man, go!"

CHARLES BENTLEY

30 Cedar Street

Vocational

"A popular man can become powerful."

The Lexington Boys' Club definitely has a top athlete in "Bent." When he isn't playing hockey, our former captain of the football team is usually involved in some other sport. As can be expected, Charlie rates gym as his favorite subject. When you ask him to do something, you will probably get the answer, "For what?" The future years include a job as a printer.

Activities: Football 2, 3, Captain 3; Hockey 2; Junior Prom Committee 3; Maroon Squad 3, 4.

JOSEPH BERGANTINO

9 Oak Street

Technical

"Sincerity is the basis of virtue."

Joe's best friends Pete and Bob often join him in a steak or a horseback ride. This popular boy in the community has been elected president of C.Y.O. and trustee in the Sons of Italy. Best of luck in college and everything you undertake, Joe.

Activities: Science Seminar 2, 3; German Club 2.

NANCY BERGMAN

72 Ellery Road

Stenographic

"Oh, life is sweet!"

Judy and Vivian agree that "Dimples" is as adept on the keyboard of a piano as on that of a typewriter. An "Ipana smile" accompanies her bubbling personality. This Rainbow girl hopes to attend the Boston School of Dental Nursing after graduation.

Activities: Mr. Husson's Staff 3, 4; Mirror Clerical Staff 4; Mirror Representative 4; Junior Prom Committee 3.

ROBERT BERGMAN

44 Addison Road

College II

"Sincerity is a trait of noble manhood."

"Bob" comes to W.H.S. from North Quincy High and brings with him his artistic talents. Like a number of other seniors, he likes our system of only four periods a week for each subject. Along with Mike and Joe, we all wish Bob the best of luck in the Marines and then at college.

ALLEN BERGSTROM

89 Farnum Road

College II

"A friendly heart wins many friends."

Likable "Al" is ready at the shortest notice to start a heated debate or eat a pile of clams two feet high. When he isn't suffering from indigestion, "Al" spends his spare time water skiing or doubling with his pal Bruce.

Activities: Debating Club 4; Talent Show Committee 4.

RICHARD BERGSTROM

89 Farnum Road

College II

"The mirror of all courtesy."

"I shall return" is the oft used quotation of "Berg." Al and Stu often accompany him on his summer water skiing jaunts. Democracy and the rotating schedule are his favorites at W.H.S. Next year will find "Berg" at college.

Activities: Debating Club 4.

PHYLLIS BERKMAN

3 Warwick Avenue

College II

"Happy is her heart."

Petite and popular "Choo" enjoys p.j. parties and skiing after school hours. She yells, "Let's hit Brigham's" to Carole, Pat, and Kathy after her favorite English class. We all wish her success in the teaching profession.

Activities: Junior Prom Committee 3; Talent Show 2, 3, 4; Maroon Squad 4; F.T.A. 3, 4; Mirror Business Staff 4; Pep Squad 2, 3, 4.

"Bells are being held while all students fill out the following cards . . ."

VIVIAN BESSEY
157 Chaffee Avenue
College II
"Her ready help was always near."
Well-rounded "Viv" comes from North Junior and can be seen dashing madly to her typing classes. After the 2:30 bell she is still active with Nancy and Bernie until she finally settles down to listening to classical music. Great success in hairdressing, Viv!
Activities: Archery 2; Business Office Staff 3; 210 Staff 3; National Honor Society 3, 4; Kingsbury Essay Winner 3; Newspaper Staff 3, 4.

JAMES BLAIKIE
89 Whitman Road
Honors
"What? Me worry?"
The name Jim Blaikie is synonymous with the word "active" around W.H.S. Being recreational director of St. Jude's C.Y.O. and publicity director of the 1963 talent show are but a few of his activities. Jim is looking forward to a rewarding career in the field of civil engineering after college.
Activities: Crimson Key 4; Debating Club 3, 4; Senior Play 4; Newspaper Staff 3, 4; Mirror Business Staff 4.

KAREN BLAKE
153 West Street
College II
"The little friend of all the world."
"Gee whiz," says "Kaa" to friends Carol and Bernice . . . plans to be a nurse . . . loves to eat turkey, play tennis, and skate . . . democracy and typing classes rate high with this sweet blonde.
Activities: Archery 4.

ALFRED BLANCHARD
51 Hastings Street
College II
"An honest man is as good as his bond."
Pizza-loving "Al" can be seen going to history class with "Butch" and Janice. When he isn't collecting records or playing golf, this former South Junior student is at C.Y.O. Best of luck, Al.

MARY BLONGASTAINER
3 Mt. Ida Terrace
College II
"'Tis the flower of the imagination."
Being treasurer of the Northenlites keeps Mary busy, but Doris and Sue tell us that she also enjoys sewing and homeroom periods at W.H.S. Future plans for this active senior include teaching in a nursery school.
Activities: Junior Prom Committee 3; Talent Show 2, 4; Pep Squad 2; Senior Prom Committee 4.

JOHN BOGLE
17 Lawndale Avenue
College II
"Humbleness is always grace and dignity."
"Wind it up!" yells John to Norman and Ronnie on the way to Mr. Yetten's chemistry class. Next to playing records and driving '54 Fords. John likes homeroom period best. John's future plans include college and the military service.
Activities: Debating Club 3, 4; Chess Club 3.

On the way to class old friends

JEANNE BONICA

12 Walton Street

Clerk Typist

"The will is free."

Jeanne thinks homeroom periods and her filing classes are just great. Her favorite pastimes include bowling with Cathy and Judy. Talented Jeanne also enjoys working as an assistant dance instructor at the Boys' Club.

BARBARA BONNEY

70 Washington Avenue

College II

"Happy days are here again."

If this vivacious senior isn't working in 210, she's probably cheering at one of our football games. "Boon" loves democracy and enjoys lunch periods with Lois and Judy. Barbara is planning on college after graduation.

Activities: Football Cheerleader 4; 210 Staff 4; Pep Squad 2, 3; Talent Show 3, 4; Maroon Squad 4; Red Cross Representative 3.

NANCY BORDENCA

223 Warren Street

College II

"Sweet as the sweetest of melodies."

A former North Juniorite, red-headed Nancy flashes a winning smile when talking to the kids at W.H.S. She's an active member of the C.Y.O. and spends most of her spare time either with Diane and Ginny or writing letters to her numerous friends. We're all sure that life won't be "rough, tough" for this pleasant senior.

Activities: Library Council 3, 4; Newspaper Staff 3; Open House Usher 3; Pep Squad 2, 3, 4; Talent Show 3, 4.

EVELYN BORNBACK

23 1/2 Robbins Street

Stenographic

"The secret of success is consistency to purpose."

"Evie" enjoys her work on the Youth Council; bowling takes up her leisure time. She can be found in typing classes with Jeannie and Huly. At W.H.S. she likes the homeroom periods best and looks forward to a career as a secretary.

ANTHINE BOUDREAU

169 School Street

Vocational

"Character gives splendor to youth."

Coming to W.H.S. from Cognate High School in New Brunswick, Canada, active "Tim" spends his spare time working on cars with his friends Steve and Paul. After graduation he plans to become a machinist.

LEO BOURGEOIS

18 Winthrop Street

Vocational

"Knowledge is but folly unless it is guided by integrity."

When the aroma of fried clams fills the air, Leo is sure to be around. Math is more than likely the topic discussed at meal time . . . lunch is anticipated with great zeal by this senior . . . hot rods are A-OK! Roger and Ray predict a bright future for Leo in contracting. Best of luck, Leo!

discuss new summer acquaintances.

DONOVAN BOWLEY

201 Ash Street

College I

"The mind is the leter of all things."

Friendly "Don" can be seen in the corridor with Don and John. Boys' Club, Scouts, and DeMolay take up much of this bright senior's time, but he still finds time for his many and diverse interests, ranging from architecture to geology.

Don's future goal is college.

Activities: Latin Club 3, 4; Weather Club 2.

DORIS BOWMAN

89 Princeton Avenue

College I

"As true as white snow."

Studious Doris likes trig and advanced math best at W.H.S. This outstanding member of the National Honor Society is interested in sports and active in Rainbow and her church fellowship. A nursing career is in store for this bright senior.

Activities: National Honor Society 3, 4; French Club 3, 4; Graduation Day Usher 3; Class Day Usher 3; Girls' Sports 2, 3, 4.

While everyone takes English, choice

LAWRENCE BOWSE

59 Farnum Road

Clerk Typist

"Ideals are the world's masters."

Especially interested in music, "Larry" also enjoys bowling and baseball with John and Dave. This future policeman can be found eating steak and discussing gym teachers and C.Y.O. activities in his spare time. Good luck in the future.

Activities: Audio-Visual Staff 2; Talent Show 4.

JOSEPH BRADLEY

30 Charlotte Road

College I

"Imagination rules the world."

Sporty "Joe," a member of the C.Y.O., likes the math department teachers and democracy best at W.H.S. This smiling tow-head eats steak and onion rings to keep in shape for football and baseball. "Catch me later," says speedy Joe to friends Steve, Ken, and John.

Activities: Baseball 2, 3, 4; Senior Prom Committee 4.

DONALD BRANNELLY

53 Francis Street

Accounting

"Sense shines when set in humility."

Likable Don can hardly wait for dismissal and the chance to play hockey with friends Bob and Al. This spirited senior has a knack for bookkeeping, a taste for pizza, and a fine future including Bentley's School of Accounting. Best of luck, Don!

Activities: Audio-Visual Staff 2.

EDWARD BRENNAN

195 Dale Street

College II

"An able and humble man is a jewel worth a kingdom."

History class brightens the day for this Italian food lover. Joined by Tooty and Richard, "Eddie" relaxes to the sound of swing music. A career in aviation awaits this senior after graduation.

Activities: Basketball Manager 2; Science Club 2.

"Your mother loves ya!" is the favorite saying of cheerful Jeannie. Veal cutlets and chicken rate high on her list of favorites. Jean's best subject is business machines, and her hobby is collecting records. Hairdressing school is number one among Jean's future plans.

Activities: Pep Squad 2.

JOHN MANNI
100 Charles Street
College II

"Honesty never goes out of vogue."

Johnny trekked his way to W.H.S. from Bradford High School in Florida. Richard and Margie tell us Johnny loves the good-natured teachers at W.H.S. . . . is irked by lazy people. Though he likes Waltham, he hopes someday he'll open his eyes to find he's relaxing 'neath the Florida sun.

NANCY MANNI

100 Charles Street

College II

"Glad that I live am I."

Pretty "Nanie" finds the rotating schedule quite a treat compared to the regular schedule at Bradford High in Starke, Florida . . . won't forget the Xmas of '62 or its presents for a long time . . . many new friends at W.H.S. include "best buddies" Jeanne and Linda . . . plans to be a dental hygienist after graduation.

ANN MARA

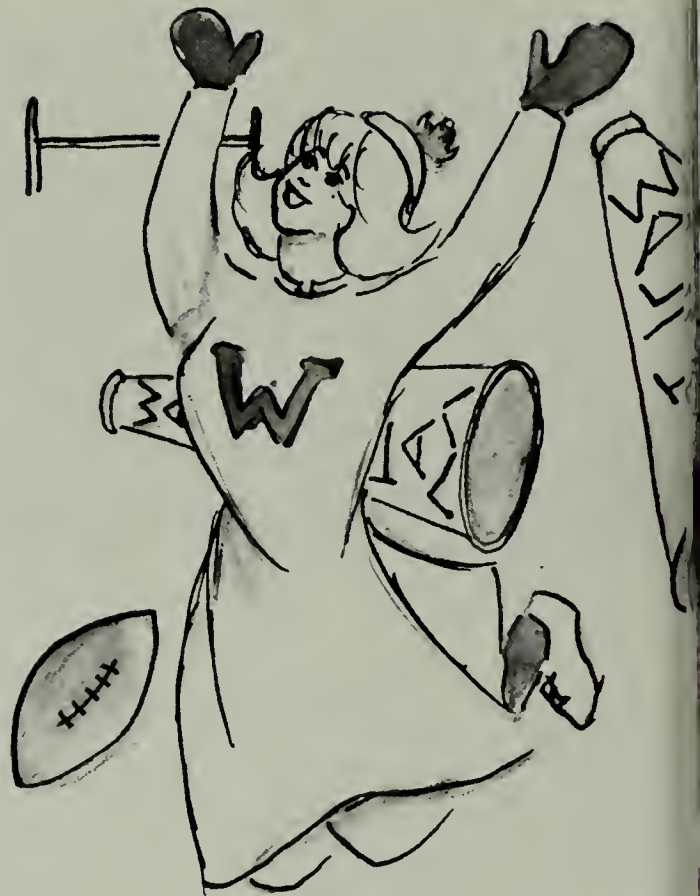

564 Main Street

Clerk Typist

"Innocence is like polished armor: it adorns and defends."

Sweet little "Annie," very quiet and shy, likes the business machines course at W.H.S. She can be found at assemblies with her close friend Hermine. "Oh, be quiet!" is the usual cry of this future secretary when she is disturbed.

Activities: Junior Prom Committee 3; Mirror Representative 4.

THEODORE MARENO

195 Temple Road

College I

"The man that laughs must sure do well."

Max and Tony agree with "Muscles," our happy-go-lucky football co-captain, that physics classes are "#1." Ted dislikes the "one way" corridors at W.H.S. Wherever this future college man goes, he leaves the memory of his famous cry, "What's for lunch?"

Activities: Football 2, 3, 4, Co-Captain 4; Baseball 2, 3, 4; Track 2, 3, 4; Talent Show 2, 3, 4; Maroon Squad 4; Senior Prom Committee 4.

MARTHA MARGESON

103½ Adams Street

College II

"Hope tells a flattering tale."

"Martz" looks back on activity period and her junior homeroom as the two things she enjoyed most at W.H.S. Her spare time is occupied with writing letters or talking on the phone to David and Jeanne. She hopes to attend hairdressing school. "How about that!"

Activities: Pep Squad 3; Red Cross Representative 3; Pep Squad 2; Talent Show 4.

ALAN MARTIN

74 Morton Street

ALBERT MELLO
1378 Trapelo Road
College I

"What trusty treasure is worth a friend?"

Food in general is a favorite of solid senior "Al," who also likes solid geometry. Naturally lunch is the best thing at W.H.S. for our football player. Water-skiing and skin-diving show his athletic abilities. Wentworth will be proof of his academic ability next year. He'll do o.k. agree friends John and Andy.

Activities: Football 2, 3, 4; French Club 3; Talent Show 3, 4; Junior Prom Committee 3; Monitor 4.

FREDRICK MICKLAY
286 Central Street
Vocational

"It is not how much we have, but how much we enjoy, that makes happiness."

"From the halls of Montezuma to the shores of Tripoli" will be the music this lad will march to after graduation. There's one thing "Skip" hopes won't be changed too much in the future, and that's his craving for fried foods. Right now, Skip keeps himself up to par by attending the Boys' Club. Keep up the fighting spirit, Skip!

RUSSELL MILLHOLLAND
8 Chamberlain Terrace
College II

"Trust him."

Trig classes will be sadly missed by "Russ" when he leaves our hallowed halls, but he keeps his mind off the subject by working at Elm Farm. "It's choice" is an often-heard remark when the topic of discussion is cars. This captain of our Rifle Team shoots for Wentworth after graduation.

Activities: Rifle Club 2, 3, 4, Secretary-Treasurer 3; Rifle Team 3, 4, Captain 4.

"Whatever is worth doing is worth doing well."
Pals Willie and Frank tell us Dave isn't a quitter and always quotes, "If at first you don't succeed . . ." to anyone who is "goofing off" . . . agrees W.H.S. has more freedom than Carmelite Junior Seminary, where he previously studied. This "lover of lunch periods" plans to enter the Air Force after graduation.

JANETTE MUNSEY
147 Copeland Street
College II

"Kindness is the sunshine in which virtue grows."

The rotating schedule is favorable to Jan, who also likes algebra, bowling, and swimming. "I don't know" is a usual expression from this career-minded member of the French club who would like to be a "garde-malade" after graduation. Friends Marcia and Carol know she'll be helpful in this medical occupation.

Activities: French Club 2, 3.

CAROLE MURPHY
40 Smart Street
College I

"Beauty is the promise of the future."

This vivacious lass loves eating pizza with Phyllis and Nancy. Among her many favorites at W.H.S. geometry class with Mr. O'Brien rates first. Carole is looking forward to teachers' college after graduation. We know she'll do well.

Activities: National Honor Society 3, 4; Future Teachers of America 3, 4; Secretary 4; Talent Show 2, 3, 4; Junior Prom Committee 3; Homeroom Representative 4; Mirror Business Staff 4.

As the deadline for the senior term paper approaches,

JEAN MURPHY
127 South Street
Clerk Typist

"How placid and how quiet is her face."

"What are you, some kind of a nut?" exclaims "Murph" during cafeteria duty when someone asks for seconds. You can bet she'll order roast beef or fried chicken for herself. Her telephone-talking friends Pho and Helen agree that this former North Juniorite likes activity period with Mr. O'Brien best at W.H.S. Jean is another senior who plans to attend I.B.M. school after graduation.

Activities: Cafeteria Squad 2; Junior Prom Committee 3; Talent Show 4.

MARY MURPHY
19 Plympton Street

Activities: Student Council Representative 3; Junior Prom Committee 3; Maroon Squad 3; Pep Squad 2, 3, 4; Red Cross Representative 2.

ANNE O'BRIEN
144 Charles Street
Clerk Typist

"Every joy is gain."

Ask Anne what she likes best at W.H.S., and the answer is activity periods with Mr. O'Brien, of course. As Bonnie and Mary Alice know, bowling and eating pizza or chocolate ice cream are also tops with this senior. Since she likes her typing classes so well, Anne is planning on office work after graduation.

EDWARD O'CONNELL
34 Circuit Lane
Accounting

"He gave to us his best."

Eager "O'Kie" lists "work" ten times as his activity. You'd have to ask Richard or Martin to verify that, but we do know "O'Kie" can be found busy at St. Luke's C.Y.O. and in history class. Bentley School of Accounting awaits him next fall, if all his "work" doesn't tire him. Good luck, "O'Kie!"

Activities: Youth Council 3.

ANNE O'KEEFE
15 Ellery Road
Honors

"In each cheek appears a pretty dimple."

Activities: Talent Show 3.

PHILIP PILLA
45 Clark Street
College II

"Anchors aweigh!" is the cry of this Navy-bound senior.

Work in the civil defense has kept Phil on the alert. Bobby and Wayne usually find this lad working on a two-way radio in his spare time. The new cafe is tops with Phil, and food reminds him immediately of his favorite, fried clams, of course! Bons voyages, Phil!

ROBERT RAND
116 Rose Hill Way
College II

An ardent lover of art, Bob's favorite subject at W.H.S. is art with Mr. Klein. In fact, this artistic lad plans to learn more in this line when he attends art school after graduation. In his spare time Bob enjoys stock cars and racing with Dave and Bill. Good luck and prosperous drawing, Bob.

DONALD STARBIRD
129 College Farm Road
Accounting

"I give up!" exclaims "Big Daddy" when unsuccessful at bowling, golf, or cards. Don is a transfer from Watertown High and enjoys democracy classes the most at W.H.S. "Bones" and "Hubbes" will readily attest to Don's love of steak. In the future Don will go into restaurant work—to get more steak, naturally!

Thoughts of Youth — 1963

"We as individuals, as American citizens and as men of God, have both the skills and the soul to go forward in peace; and we shall attain these goals, and from these seek new goals, as yet undreamed of by man, in a never-ending quest for human dignity, ultimate meaning, and the Divine Will."

PAUL JULIEN

"Today, more than ever before, there is a great need for young men and women with the qualities of scholarship, character, leadership, and service. This is why membership in the National Honor Society is one of the highest honors that this school or any school can confer on its students.

SANDRA SANTOLUCITO

"Character is the key around which all other traits revolve. It is the stamp of individuality impressed by nature, education, or habit and is the basis for Leadership, Scholarship, and Service. It is the invisible magnet that guides one through life's temptations. As a person grows in character, his personality becomes increasingly attractive and beneficial to those around him."

VIRGINIA NELSON

"Our intellectual thirst is quenched by the waters of scholarship. However, intellectual thirst like physical thirst is recurrent, demanding new answers to new problems."

GARY McELHINEY

"Service is an integral part of our everyday life. People serving people make each day a more pleasant and rewarding one for all of us. Each and everyone of you must live as a pillar of the nation. Only you possess the ability to give a part of yourself. Always be eager to assist other people; go beyond the call of duty! be ever mindful of the common welfare."

SUSANNE STEWART

"Now it is up to us, the citizens of tomorrow, to continue this surge forward in our educational system. We, as a nation, must not be satisfied with the progress we have made, but instead we must evaluate these new trends and use them to our best advantage . . . Many promising college graduates would like to teach but simply can't afford to. Therefore it is up to us to make teaching a more attractive vocation in order that the increased enrollments are assured of a sufficient number of qualified teachers."

HISTORY

Concern for others, a trait common to the members of the Class of 1963, has manifested itself in their takeover of the Peace Corps (by violent means, of course).

We find "Sarge" Kirley, director of the corps, in his office dictating to his secretaries, Roseanne Cacciatore, Charlene LeFort, and Marcia Lickorai. With him is his chief promoter, "Boss Twig" Curry. The Boss reports that the wool-lined Peace Corps jackets aren't selling well in Pakistan, according to his underground representative, Fatiba W'adud.

They confer with their top designers, Jane Young, Nancy Leonard, and Donovan Bouley, and after deliberation they decide to visit various outposts to determine what type of jacket would be most suitable.

Phil Harris, Jeanette Munsey, and Jean Masse are at once dispatched to Ethiopia. There they find Dave "Tamba" Zeno and his assistants, Tom Ryan, Karen Carlman, and "Harry" McElroy leading the natives in an exhibition of tree swinging. They were inspired to do this after watching an old Tarzan movie starring Ted Maren and Cathy Martin. Tamba suggests a leopard skin jacket with oversized pockets for his bananas.

In another part of the jungle, they find Charles Wentworth and John Babstock teaching the natives how to convert an old 1968 Ford into a modern double reactor nuclear automobile. Charley and Babo insist that the jackets must be resistant to both grease and radioactivity.

Cynthia Hignite, Steve Bradbury, and Linda Cannizzo, other Peace Corps representatives, on their way to Saudi Arabia, stop for a week in old London. They relax in their rooms at the Triple C Hotel run by Cocivera, Cormier, and Correia. Our representatives turn on TV to find that England's biggest broadcasting company is owned by Brennan, Vanaria, and Domings, better known as the BVD. They find British housewives doing their sitting up exercises to the cheerful voice of Gary McElhiney. During the commercial they discover that the fingers walking through the yellow pages belong to Judy Shadraw.

Stumbling out into the London fog, the group collides with Dick Lang, Dave Holl, and Bob Stempson, who are training for the 1976 Olympics. Really, boys! Are you still following President Kennedy's advice by taking 50 mile hikes?

At the Edward O'Connell Airport, our representatives board the Saudi Arabia Special piloted by Mike Whitehouse and Richard Chiacchio. Charming stewardesses, Patricia Despres, Elaine Flynn, and Jean Simonetti welcome the passengers aboard. The group notices the unusual plaid socks worn by the girls and are told that Nancy Jaquith designed the socks especially for the airline. Shiek Demetrios Mimos and his dancing girls, Diane Rynn, Nancy Morabeto, Marcia Parkhurst, and Barbara Roberts, accompanied on the mandolin by Madeline Coroniti, greet the delegates upon their arrival. They hear the cheery native cry, "Smock!" and see Mark Rosen, who leads them to his desert oasis. Mark tells them of his current project to improve the dental hygiene of the natives. His group, including Mary Powers, Paul Murphy, June Toroyan, and Mike McDaniel, had 60 per cent fewer cavities with Rick English toothpaste. Mark suggests a hooded jacket to keep sand off his neck. Looking around, they find John Roche spraying to kill mosquitoes with Grindrod insecticide.

John Allen, Joan Amunziata, and John Pearson arrive in Rangoon, Burma, where Stew Anderson and Father Joe Bergantino are busy picking rice with Edward Misch and Bert Hanson. To boost rice production, Vivian Grasser is up in her company plane seeding the clouds. It's a good thing pharmacist Bob Curry invented Super-Duper Dramamine airsickness pills. The district representative, Wayne Abbott, suggests that due to Vivian's success, a rubber-sized jacket is needed.

Nancy Manni, Fred Micklay, and Sandy Young stop over at the Statler-DeVincent Hotel in Miami before leaving for Venezuela. They relax at poolside and watch Jude Keenan give swimming lessons to Cynthia Putnam, Ernestine Tomao, Sheila O'Neil, and Mary Nixon. Suddenly a crowd gathers in the hotel lobby. Fighting their way to the front, they see TV personalities Big Brother Dick Weston and "Miss Francis" of Ding Dong School, whom we know as Frannie Wahl.

Our delegates have to hurry off to catch the Queen Mary hydroplane, named after Mary Leonard. As Captain Phil Rhodes gives the order to cast off, social director Carol Rietchel is teaching Jean Murphy and Fred Donald how to play shuffleboard. Going below, they are amazed to find that Frank Beninati, Henry Abbondanzio, and Sandra Ferrazani have converted the ship into a floating pizza palace. The sea and the pizza didn't quite mix, so everyone soon finds himself under the care of the ship's nurses, Sue Stewart, Martha Childs, and Maureen Ryan.

Finally the ship docks in Caracas, and after a harrowing ride in a Tranchita taxi, the group arrives at the Peace Corps office. Albert Peel, taking a siesta by the door, stirs slightly as our delegates walk by. Volunteer Ken Walsh invites them to a skating exhibition, but at the rink they find John Leger, Bob Drury, Roger Richard, and Victor Doucette very much disappointed because the ice had melted under the hot Venezuelan sun.

Our delegates travel to the forest to visit with Carol Brown, the queen of the Amazons, and her tribe, Sandy Santolucito, Barbara Lombardi, and Sue Guerre. They spy Jim Blaikie behind a pile of coffee beans telling jokes to the natives. "One, two, three, four . . ." "That noise you hear," explains Jim, "is my assistant, John Joyce, counting out 43 beans for every cup of old Nescafe."

When they return to the city, our excited people find the streets crowded with ambassadors. "What's going on?" they wonder. They soon learn that the richest bullfighters in the country have gathered in town for their annual convention. The members of the Peace Corps are invited to the exclusive dinner on the last night of the convention to sit at the head table with the world-famous toreadors, Glenn Talbot and Dave McPherson. After dinner, the waiters wheel in a large, fancy cake, and who should pop out of the top but a former classmate, Anne O'Keefe.

Two weeks later "Sarge" Kirley decides that his representatives have been gone long enough, and he calls them back to Washington. At the Ritz-Tobin, belle hoppeltes Kathy Chaisson, Kathy McCullion, Linda Giardina, and Judy Thorne, led by Joe Bradley, carry the delegates' bags to their suites. The group arrive in their rooms and turn on the television in time to see the Bergstrom twins do the Doublemint gum commercial. They are followed by "The Weather" with Melody Johnson, sponsored by Old Goldstein Cigarettes.

After turning off the set, they hurry down to the Peace Corps Pep Rally held in the Janet Whelan Room. Mary Stankard, Barbara Bonney, Jane Hennings, Sharon Snum, and Maureen Cutler lead the cheering. Rose Mioszczyk, Pat Hamley, Don Brannelly, Martha Heilby, Jeanne Vanley and Jeanne Whitney direct the installation of new Peace Corps members with the solemnity found in all WHS graduates.

The time has come to decide on the fabric for Peace Corps jackets. William Range, Dick Vitale, and Bob Hohmann, still known for their sharp thinking, put their heads together. "What we need," says Bob, "is a material suitable for every climate in the world." Finally it is Dick who finds the answer. Paul Julien, chief scientist of the Carr, Camm, and Kulin Jacket Company, has worked months in his germ-free laboratories to perfect a substance which will meet our rigid requirements, and as a member of the Class of 1963, he has consented to give us exclusive rights to his discovery. "Wonderful!" agree Bob and William. "What is the name of the material?" "Well," says Dick, "The Steve Allen Show was always Paul's favorite program during his senior year at Waltham High School. In memory of that show, he has named his new product "fern."

Production of fern-lined jackets began immediately, and thanks to the resourcefulness of the WHS Class of 1963, another of the world's problems was solved.

Class Will

Be it known that we, the illustrious members of the Class of 1963 of Waldham High School, being of reasonably sound mind, in temporary possession of our faculties, and in dead earnest do hereby declare and assert this document to be our last will and testament. Desirous of disposing of these, our last earthly possessions, we hereby palm them off on certain privileged individuals.

If "Walter the Electrician" is available, we petition him to install for Mr. May a 5,000 volt doorknob to contain the future chemistry classes, we present Mr. Morang with a stick of cinnamon, we provide a pair of part time twin vampires to replace the girls in the Vocational School with a Snark Bar for faculty and students.

To alleviate the tension of the future chemistry classes, we present Mr. Morang with a sick of cinnamon, we provide a pair of part time twin vampires to replace the girls in the Vocational School with a Snark Bar for faculty and students.

The clan presents Mr. Hood with a Macduff plaid kilt to clash with his famous Macbeth tie.

As a filiation to the all-powerful goddess of mathematics, Miss Mary Lou Hogan, we offer a "simple, blind substitution" for a gold plated discus.

We bestow upon Mr. Chapman one hard-bound anthology of 1001 intricate answers to questions about college and supplementary "I told you so's".

Our gift to Miss McCullough is an invitation to India from Nehru recognizing her as a member of the Kennedy compound.

We sacrifice 100 lbs. of "Yak" fur to Miss Madden for the ingenious creations of the Sewing Department.

To Mr. Clark we leave a snide remark about his ambulatory tape recorder.

We confer upon Miss Betts one team of pre-numbered test sheets in azure blue.

For Mr. Pippin we are setting up temporary headquarters in the boiler room until the appropriation for his plush suite of offices comes through.

Intended to reduce his athletic equipment chores, our gift to Mr. Harding is a complete Laundromat plus a year's supply of moth balls.

Having learned of Mrs. Johnson's family band, we contribute a bassoon and a portable piano which she can take camping.

The Class of 1963 has formulated a revolutionary new theorem for the express purpose of proving to Mr. Reynolds and the entire Math Department that $HC > BC$.

To help him organize his soprano section, we bequeath to Mr. Philpott a pitchpipe tuned to the key of "Z".

For Mr. Richman we allocate the funds for a toll gate to regulate the traffic on the bridge.

Long memories of a gala festival celebrating Guy Fawkes' Day prompt us to leave permanent possession of one authentic gun powder keg in our enthusiastic Mrs. Brown.

To our dedicated headmaster, Mr. Gallagher, we bequeath and devise all the clever items he wouldn't let us leave to the other teachers.

We, the undersigned, do hereby appoint Mrs. Morris and Miss Nolan as Executors and the 210 staff and secretaries as the executors of this our Class Will in this year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-three, the era of the Physical Fitness Fifty-Mile Walk.

CLASS POEM 1963

PERSPECTIVE

Be still a moment.

Do you hear the sweep of leaves, leaves
Of trees which stand so deeply entrenched?
The pioneers felled these trees with hands
Mighty enough to win freedom yet gentle enough to tend Seedlings, all the while thinking of us.

Be still a day.

Do you hear the lap of water, water
In the brooks, lakes, oceans of all time?
It has molded our shores with the smashings
Of storms, nurtured the earth with gentle
Rain, all the while thinking of us.

Be still a week.

Do you hear the pound of steel, steel
That shapes our buildings that strain
For the sky? This creation of man has been
His defense and his herculean
Tool, all the while thinking of us.

Be still a year.

Do you hear the strength of men, men
Who worked together, who disregarded
Color, race, and creed? They laughed at Hardship, fought for, died for Freedom, all the while thinking of us.

Be still a century.

Do you hear the power of America, America
That sired liberty, that stands triumphant?
It guarded freedom, hard-won freedom,
Remembered its duty and raised liberty's banner on High, all the while thinking of us.

Be still an eternity.

Do you sense the potential of youth, youth,
The deciding force of the future? We who Look ahead, rejoice at what we see there,
And wonder about following
Generations, all the while thinking of them.

The class of 1963 presented its Senior Play, "The Haunted High School," on November 20, 1962. Capably directed by Wayne Prophet, the cast of fourteen did a masterful job in the comedy-mystery. The time and effort put into this production were well appreciated by the other members of the class. Congratulations on a job well done.

TALENT SHOW

The weeks of preparation for this year's talent show, Times, Tunes and Talent, was well rewarded by the enthusiastic response of the audience. The show went off smoothly for its two-night stand and the American Field Service fund was greatly enlarged thanks to the "Prophets" and the ingenious acts of the high school participants.

Pirates' Treasure Ship

On the night of May 23, 1963, the high school cafeteria became the underwater scene of the Senior Prom. The theme "Aqua Fantasia" was beautifully carried out in the decorations: a treasure chest, an octopus which floated above the dancers, and a sunken shipwreck. Each girl received a silver charm as a keepsake of this memorable evening.

1963 CLASS DAY

On the afternoon of May 29, the class of 1963 marched into the I.B.E.W. Hall to the rhythm of Pomp and Circumstance played by the Waltham High School band. As the co-chairmen of the various committees read the 1963 history, prophecy, and will, the class responded spontaneously to the subtle humor interspersed throughout the documents. The senior superlatives were announced and appropriate gifts were given to each winner. After the dedication of the 1963 Mirror to Mr. Edward May, our class marched out to the recessional.

THE STAGE AT ULLMAN

Finally after many long years of joys, anxieties, and disappointments the big event was here, but soon it was a thing of the past. On the evening of June, 5, the class of 1963 graduated in the spacious Ullman Amphitheater at Brandeis University.

Solemnly the graduating class filed into the amphitheater and after the invocation by Rabbi Kra, the president of the class, Peter Curry, welcomed everyone. Marcia Parkhurst introduced the three honor speakers, Patricia Carr, Mark Rosen and Paul Julien, as well as the class poet Janet Whelan; the theme of their talks was "Confidence in a Growing America." Father McCabe gave the prayer and then our headmaster, Mr. Gallagher, awarded the scholarship keys and prizes. Next came the long awaited moment when Mayor Rhodes presented the diplomas, and one by one we filed across the stage to receive them. After a benediction given by Reverend Palm, the singing of "God Bless America" and the Waltham High song, graduation came to an end for the class of 1963 as we filed out of the amphitheater. And while this occasion was met with mixed emotions, to all the graduates it signified the end of our high school career as well as the beginning of many important years of our lives.

VOCATIONAL HIGH AWARD

In May of this year the Auto Mechanics Class of Waltham Vocational High School brought great honor to the city and the class of '63 when its representatives won the highest honors in a state-wide Automotive Trouble Shooting contest sponsored by the Chrysler Corporation.

In late June Paul Jannoni and Robert Swanson of the class of '63, together with their auto-mechanics teachers, Mr. Le Flem and Mr. Back, traveled to Detroit as representatives of Massachusetts in the national contest. At Detroit, in competition with students from forty-nine other states, our Waltham representatives distinguished themselves. Waltham copped first prize in the written part of the contest and placed near the top in the mechanical phase of it. Both boys were presented their awards by Mr. Parrelli Jones, winner of the Indianapolis 500.

Our congratulations to Paul Jannoni and Robert Swanson as well as to their instructors, Mr. Back, Mr. LeFlem, and Mr. Kalishman. The class of 1963 is proud of this honor won by their fellow classmates.

Once again Coach Gould's track team proved to be quite strong. Outdoors the team finished third and garnered seven points in the State Meet Classic. Members of the squad were successful in such outstanding competition as the Penn Relays and St. John's and Belmont Relays. A true testimony to this truly fine team is the number of broken and tied records.

Although their record was not superlative, this year's W.H.S. football team displayed real fighting spirit. Injuries to key players such as Co-capt. Ted Mareno and half-back Dick Vitale were an impediment to the team's progress.

Coach John Krol hopes this year's experience will help in his buildup for next year.

COACH QUINN

With Coach Arthur Quinn at the helm for the last time, the crimson quintet behind captain Lloyd Peacock posted a fourth place finish with an 11-7 record in the ever tough Suburban League. The supreme moment of the season was the all round team effort displayed in the overwhelming upset victory against potent Brookline. Double wins over Newton and Newton South added to the sweetness of the season.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

MR. THOMAS F. NEYLON, JR.

Nine score and several days ago our advisor brought forth in his editors a new inspiration, conceived in purpose and dedicated to the proposition that our 1963 MIRROR will have no equal.

Then we were engaged in a great struggle, testing whether this advisor or any advisor so inspired and so dedicated can long endure.

The class will little note nor long remember what we say here, but it should never forget what he did here. Therefore, it is our hope that this MIRROR of the class, by the class, and for the class shall reflect the patience, the ingenuity, and the long hours of work contributed to this book by our advisor, Mr. Thomas Neylon.

We also wish to express a word of thanks to Mr. Paul Shea for the wonderful help he gave us regarding the art work for this MIRROR. Mr. Shea was always willing to lend a helping hand and give wise and generous suggestions when we needed them. The class is most appreciative of his aid and kindnesses.

MR. PAUL D. SHEA

For their many courtesies the MIRROR staff also wishes to thank:
Mr. William Gallagher and Mr. Lloyd Van Arsdale for their understanding and help;
Mrs. Thomas Neylon for her help in proofreading;
Russo Studio, O'Neil Studio, and the NEWS TRIBUNE for photographic assistance.

A TELEPHONE JOB

OFFERS BOTH CAREER

AND SOCIAL SATISFACTION

WITHOUT BREAKING STRIDE,

why not graduate from high school to the Telephone Company? You'll love the friendly young people who'll work with you, and the many social activities that make your work so pleasant and rewarding.

OPPORTUNITY IS EXCELLENT

and your ability will be recognized. Your starting salary should climb with regular increases. And, of course, Company benefits, security, and regular advancement are well-known reasons why working for the Telephone Company is so attractive to graduates.

TELEPHONE JOBS ARE IMPORTANT,

vital to the effective communications of the community, the nation, and the world. When you take your place as a respected member of the telephone community, we'll train you, on full salary, even without previous job experience.

Why not come and see our employment interviewer soon . . . before you graduate? Ask your Guidance Counselor to tell you when and where to apply.

ELECTRONICS ENGINEERS GET CURIOUS— AND LOOK WHAT HAPPENS AT RAYTHEON!

Surely we do encourage free-wheeling, no-holds-barred curiosity in this fast moving field of electronics! Here at Raytheon, for example, it's the constant interest of our people in exploring new ideas that leads every day to new and exciting electronics developments. Examples: "DataRay" equipment to transmit punched card data by telephone . . . weather radar to warn of approaching storms . . . lasers, a key to space communications. For the young man or woman eyeing a career, the electronics industry is filled with satisfying and rewarding opportunities. Raytheon Co., Lexington, Mass.

It is with a deep sense of gratitude that we, the Waltham High School Sea Devils, acknowledge the untiring effort and perseverance of our renowned Scuba Diving Instructor, Mr. Paul Hennessey.

We wish to express our heartfelt appreciation to him for his patience and understanding. We are deeply grateful for the intricate knowledge he passed along to us while we attempted to master underwater skills—so valuable to the Scuba Diving enthusiast.

Mr. Hennessey, may we thank you for your help, guidance and most valuable assistance.
